The Grades

Category of Grades

Types of Assessments

Major Assessment: 30 points
Minor Assessment: 20 points
Homework: 10 points

Wait...what?

Every assignment you receive will be under a certain category: interpretive reading, interpretive listening, interpersonal, or presentational. Every quarter, you will get a grade for each category.

Example:
Interpretive reading: 96%
Interpretive listening: 93%
Presentational: 90%
Interpersonal: 91%

So your final quarter grade: 92.5%

Intermediate Low? What's that?

It's our GOAL!

Being an intermediate low speaker, writer, listener, and reader means that you can understand and say a LOT!

You can ask and answer simple questions about familiar topics

Talk about likes & dislikes

Express your preferences & needs

Describe things and people

You can begin to...

handle short conversations on a variety of topics that are familiar or interesting to you

You WILL...

make mistakes! It's a normal part of learning a new language (P.S. I will make them too!)

understand the main idea in short, simple messages and presentations on familiar topics. I can understand the main idea of simple conversations that I overhear.

By the end of the year, you can....

...participate in conversations on a number of familiar topics using simple sentences. I can handle short social interactions in everyday situations by asking and answering simple questions.

write briefly about most familiar topics and present information using a series of simple sentences.

understand the main idea of short and simple texts when the topic is familiar.

...present information on most familiar topics using a series of simple sentences.

...pretty cool, huh?

So...what are we going to learn about?

TALL TALES/FAIRY TALES

Tropical Islands

Ok...but what are we actually going to DO?

We'll play games, tell stories, draw silly pictures, read stories, listen (and dance) to music, have conversations, make graphs, learn about new cultures, show off in French, and have fun while learning a new language!

Get ready for our journey!
